

Beatitudes of Bold Faith

Blessed are those who don't fall away when they don't understand, when God doesn't act, when there are obstacles, and when they feel deserted.
They will find their strength renewed.

Blessed are those who don't give up when things are going wrong.
They will spread their wings and soar like eagles.

Blessed are those who don't pout when answers are delayed.
They will run and not be weary. They will walk and not faint.

Blessed are those who keep on believing when the night is long and black.
Morning will come. God is still on the throne!
